Dear Parents/Carers

Tuesday, 05 March 2019

Since its launch in 1988, Red Nose Day has become something of a British institution. It is the day, every two years, when people across the land can get together and raise money at home, school and work.

Comic Relief spends the money raised by Red Nose Day to help people living tough lives across the UK and Africa.

Just £3 could pay for crayons, pencils, paint and paper for children living in a Serbian refugee camp. £10 could cover the cost of 10 hot meals for a homeless person in the UK.

We are inviting all of the children to take part in our 'Get Set to Go Red' non-uniform day on Friday 15 March 2019. We ask that all children donate a minimum £1 and try to incorporate something red into their outfits; themes and fancy dress are also acceptable.

We will also be using Red Nose Day as a learning opportunity to help our students explore the issues facing young people across the world, and how the money we raise can help.

We really appreciate your support and hope that you will have fun helping us raise lots of money for Red Nose Day.

Yours sincerely
