Dear Parents & Carers,

It has been a fun-filled week at Concordia with the circus arriving in town, and today's Halloween dress-up! You can see more images later on in this newsletter of both events.

We wish all of our parents, carers and children a wonderful week's holiday, and we look forward to seeing you back here on Tuesday 2 November at the usual time.

Happy holidays!

Kind regards,

Mr Raheel Akhtar
Headteacher

ATTENDANCE

| Class Name | Weekly Attendance |
|------------|-------------------|
| Buttercup | 86.3% |
| Bluebell | 90.8% |
| Daisy | 94.3% |
| Daffodil | 93.4% |
| Lilac | 92.7% |
| Sunflower | 98.5% |
| Poppy | 93.8% |
| Lily | 94.8% |
| Carnation | 95.2% |
| Orchid | 97.3% |
| Magnolia | 93.1% |

Congratulations to Sunflower Class who are our attendance award winners this week with 98.5% attendance! The class with the highest attendance percentage at the end of each term will receive a special prize.

Coming to school on time every day makes a significant difference to how well children achieve at school. Good attendance at school is one of the key indicators of educational success for a child throughout their school life, so make it a priority to get your child to school every day.

Please remember that we do not authorise holidays during term time.

STAR OF THE WEEK

Star of The Week in Daisy Class is Hussain! Hussain has been challenging himself to write Numbers beyond 10. Keep up the excellent work, Hussain!

Star of The Week in Bluebell Class is Amyra who has been trying her best in Phonics. Amyra has been using her Fred Fingers to segment her words to spell out her spellings.

Star of The Week in Buttercup Class goes to Isher. Isher has been using his phonic knowledge to create excellent pieces of writing. This week Isher was able to independently write sentences describing different foods that he had tasted in class. Amazing effort, Isher!

Star of The Week in Sunflower Class is Giovanni. Giovanni has been making a super effort with all learning this term and he has made excellent progress and we have been very impressed with how he has settled into Sunflower Class. Keep up the great work, Giovanni.

Star of The Week in Lilac Class is Satara. Satara has made excellent progress with her phonics sound because she has been trying her hardest and showing a positive attitude towards learning. Well done Satara, keep up the excellent work!

Star of The Week in Daffodil Class is Remaas. Remaas is a new student at Concordia and has settled in well. She has made a great start and makes a super effort in all lessons, particularly doing well in Maths. Welcome again Remaas, keep up the hard work.

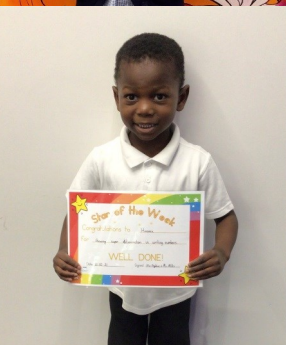

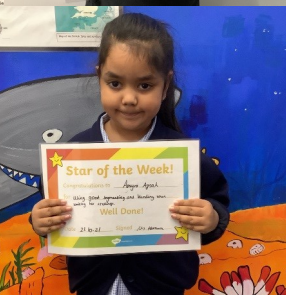

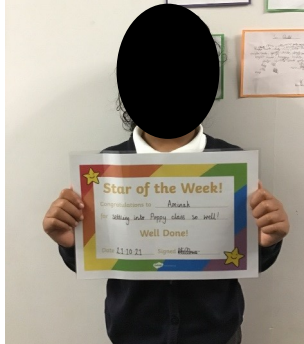

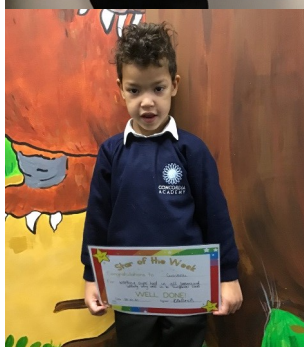

Star of The Week in Lily Class is Izma. Izma has made mature choices this week and has tried her best to follow instructions. Not only has Izma's behaviour been excellent, she has also impressed us in Phonics. Izma used some fabulous vocabulary to write a persuasive poster. Well deserved, Izma!

Star of The Week in Poppy Class is Aminah. Aminah has settled in beautifully to Poppy Class and is already working hard at all activities.

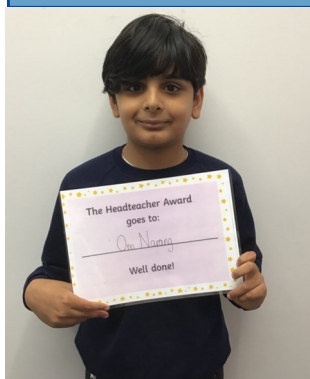

Star of The Week in Carnation Class is Inaaya who has shown excellent effort across all lessons this week. Inaaya is also becoming more confident in sharing her ideas with the class. Keep it up!

Star of The Week in Orchid Class is Dilasu for making such a great effort within Mathematics. She has shown resilience when answering more challenging questions and is contributing significantly more towards classroom discussion. Keep up the hard work, Dilasu!

Star of The Week in Magnolia Class is Poppy! She has worked hard in every single lesson this half term and she is becoming even more confident in sharing her valuable contributions with the whole class. Well done Poppy, and keep up the fantastic work!

HEADTEACHER AWARDS

The Headteacher Award in Daisy Class goes to Sian! She has been pushing herself to use her Fred Fingers to help her spell. Well done, Sian!

The Headteacher Award in Bluebell Class goes to Ariele who has been working really hard on her English and also on her writing. Her writing skills have improved immensely as she is now able to write her name independently.

The Headteacher Award in Buttercup Class goes to John. This week, John has arrived at school with a smile on his face and a positive attitude. Keep it up, John!

The Headteacher Award for Sunflower Class goes to Zunairah. Zunairah has demonstrated excellent understanding of relationship triangles and how these can be used to represent the same number bonds in lots of different ways. Well done!

The Headteacher Award in Lilac Class this week goes to Zareen. Zareen was demonstrating excellent listening when we were learning about Black History Month. She listened carefully to the different types of music that are played at Notting Hill Carnival and she even remembered the name of the lady who started the carnival; Claudia Jones! Good job Zareen, keep up the great work!

The Headteacher Award in Daffodil Class goes to Simran. Simran has been supporting a new starter at Concordia. Simran has shown great kindness in helping her friend and acting as a superstar role model. Well done Simran, great job!

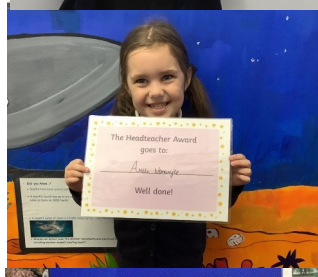

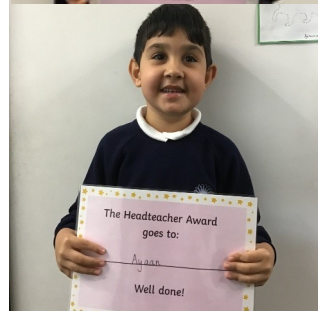

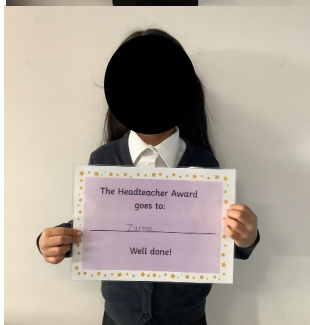

The Headteacher Award in Lily Class goes to Kenzie. To celebrate Black History Month, Lily Class composed their own 'I Have a Dream' speeches. Kenzie's speech encouraged his listeners to be kind and caring to those around them. Great work, Kenzie!

The Headteacher Award in Poppy Class goes to Ayaan who received the award this week for paying excellent attention during our Black History Month lesson about Martin Luther King. Great listening, Ayaan!

The Headteacher Award in Carnation Class goes to Ziva! Ziva has worked hard to complete her Literacy and Language writing work despite missing lessons due to illness. She has listened carefully to instructions and worked sensibly to complete her work. Keep it up!

The Headteacher Award in Orchid Class goes to Om for his kind manners and excellent partner work. Om has been an excellent partner who has been able to explain new concepts to the class and use mathematical vocabulary when doing so. He has also continued to show outstanding presentation within his work. Excellent work, Om!

The Headteacher Award for Magnolia Class is presented to Leon! He is an avid reader and his love for reading has motivated many other students in the class. Moreover, Leon has amazing artistic skills and he has demonstrated this countless times during our art lessons. Well done, Leon!
