SECTION 8 – DISCLOSURE AND BARRING AND RECRUITMENT CHECKS

REAch2 is legally obligated to process an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check before making appointments to relevant posts.

The DBS check will reveal both spent and unspent convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings, and any other information held by local police that’s considered relevant to the role. Any information that is “protected” under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 will not appear on a DBS certificate.

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered ‘protected’. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.

Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website. For further impartial advice, please visit – NACRO.

If you are successfully shortlisted you will be expected to complete a self-declaration form prior to your interview, and if you secure the role, each year of your employment, if appropriate for the role.

Any convictions listed on a DBS check and/or in the self-declaration form will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

For posts in regulated activity, the DBS check will include a barred list check.

It is an offence to seek employment in regulated activity if you are on a barred list.

Disqualification under the Childcare Act 2006. Section 76(2) of the 2006 act, provides that a person who is disqualified under the 2018 regulations may not:

- provide relevant childcare provision
- be directly concerned in the management of such provision

Under section 76(3) schools are prohibited from employing a disqualified person in connection with relevant childcare provision in the settings set out in the relevant offences and orders section of this guide (Disqualification under the Childcare Act 2006 Guidance), unless the individual in question has been granted a waiver by Ofsted for the role they wish to undertake.

For all posts that meet the childcare disqualification criteria in addition to an enhanced DBS check with child barred list check, you will also be required to complete a childcare disqualification declaration form prior to your interview, and if you secure the role, each year of your employment.

Any data processed as part of the DBS check / childcare disqualification check will be processed in accordance with data protection regulations and the REAch2's privacy notice.

If you have lived/travelled outside of the UK for more than 6 consecutive months within the last 10 years REAch2 will require you to obtain a criminal records check from the relevant country. If you answer 'yes' to the question below, we may contact you for additional information in due course.

Any job offer will be conditional on the satisfactory completion of the necessary pre-employment checks.

Have you lived or worked outside of the UK in the last 10 years? Yes No
